All these institute discuss of the Liver or Digative Organs, combined with impure blood.

Hoofland's German Bitters

is entirely vegetable, and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Harks from which these extracts are under a from them by a selentific chemist, These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no gleoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Hitters, hence it is the only Hitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

Hoofland's German Tonio

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Billers, with rens Sania Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Hillers, in cases where some pure atrobolic attended is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are untirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, but the others are mere devocious of rum in same form.
